

Pfizer Oncology together™

Accessing your Pfizer Oncology medicine. Together.

A guide to help you navigate healthcare coverage and financial support resources.

Pfizer Oncology Together provides:

- Financial assistance
- Insurance support
- Personalized patient support

Because when it comes to support, we're in this together.

Financial Assistance

If needed, we'll help you find financial assistance options for your prescribed Pfizer Oncology medicine, regardless of your insurance coverage.

If you are commercially insured, government insured, or have no insurance coverage at all, visit the Insurance Types page to see the resources that may be available to you through Pfizer Oncology Together.

Support for Commercially Insured Patients

CO-PAY ASSISTANCE

Eligible, commercially insured patients may pay as little as $0 per month for oral medicines or per treatment for certain injectable medicines through our co-pay savings programs. Limits, terms, and conditions apply.*

*For oral products, click here and for injectable products, click here. Patients are not eligible for these programs if they are enrolled in a state or federally funded insurance program, including but not limited to Medicare, Medicaid, TRICARE, Veterans Affairs health care, a state prescription drug assistance program, or the Government Health Insurance Plan available in Puerto Rico. For oral products, patients may receive up to $10,000 per product in savings annually. For injectable products, maximum annual patient savings range from $10,000 to $25,000.

The Pfizer Patient Assistance Program

If you are not commercially insured, the Pfizer Patient Assistance Program[†] provides Pfizer medicines for free to eligible patients who are having difficulty affording their prescribed Pfizer Oncology medicines. To be evaluated for assistance, patients must submit a completed Patient Assistance Program Enrollment Form and meet certain requirements.

[†]The Pfizer Patient Assistance Program is a joint program of Pfizer Inc. and the Pfizer Patient Assistance Foundation™. Free medicines from Pfizer are provided through the Pfizer Patient Assistance Foundation™. The Pfizer Patient Assistance Foundation™ is a separate legal entity from Pfizer Inc. with distinct legal restrictions.

Navigating Insurance Coverage

If you need help understanding what your plan covers, Pfizer Oncology Together™ can contact your insurance provider to determine the coverage and out-of-pocket costs for your prescribed Pfizer Oncology medicine. Out-of-pocket costs are expenses that are not paid by your insurance plan. The following resources are available to you as you navigate different healthcare finances.
