How to Get Started With Pfizer Oncology Together

The healthcare provider (HCP) and patient can complete and sign the Pfizer Oncology Together Support Services and Patient Assistance Enrollment Form available at www.pfizeroncologytogether-portal.com.

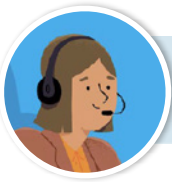

- 1 Patients need to read the Enrollment Form and assign the benefit based on whether they or the HCP will receive the co-pay payment from the Pfizer Oncology Together Co-Pay Program for Injectables.
 - The HCP or patient submits the completed Enrollment Form to Pfizer Oncology Together.
- 2 Pfizer Oncology Together Access Counselors can complete a benefit verification and will communicate if the patient is eligible for the co-pay program or other financial assistance programs if requested.
 - Eligible patients will be enrolled into the Pfizer Oncology Together Co-Pay Savings Program for Injectables. The patient and HCP will receive a co-pay approval letter, including the identification card with instructions for submitting co-pay claims.
 - After treatment and receipt of the Explanation of Benefits (EOB) from the patient's insurance, the HCP completes the ZIRABEV Co-Pay Savings Program Claim Form and submits it with the EOB to the Pfizer Oncology Together Co-Pay Savings Program for Injectables.
- 3 If the patient has assigned their ZIRABEV Co-Pay Savings Program payment to their HCP, the HCP will receive reimbursement via check or electronic funds transfer after the claim is approved.
- 4 If the patient does not assign benefits to the HCP and the HCP does not submit a ZIRABEV co-pay claim (or if a specialty pharmacy dispensed ZIRABEV), then the patient (or pharmacy) can submit a ZIRABEV co-pay claim to the Pfizer Oncology Together Co-Pay Savings Program for Injectables and receive payment via check after the claim is processed.
